ATTACHMENT A

On June 4, 2005 Trading Spaces Boys vs. Girls aired at 9:30am as an isolated half-hour. The reason for the isolated airing is due to NBC's scheduling of The French Open Tennis on this date from 6am-9:30am. This also resulted in the preemption of the 9am children's program causing the 9:30am show to air as an isolated program.

The normal format for that program, which contained 5 min 30 seconds of commercial matter, was used causing KVOA to exceed the commercial limits by :15 seconds on this date for an isolated half-hour program. The format was used by mistake. The commercial limits for that program was not fixed by Traffic therefore resulting in the overage.

The procedures in place to make certain that this will not occur again are 1) Traffic will double check the commercial limits before the log is printed and the format for the isolated half-hour program will only contain 5 minutes 15 seconds total of commercial time. 2) Master Control will check the commercial limits the day of air. If the commercial matter exceed the limits, Master Control will automatically correct.
